The Lake County Cares 'i Care Award' will be presented to individuals or groups within Lake County who have made volunteering a part of their everyday lifestyle.

Call for Nomination Form

Lake County Cares will host its first 'i Care Award' Volunteer Recognition Dinner on April 24, 2010 at the Exmoor Country Club in Highland Park. The event, previously known as The Volunteer Center's Women of Service & Style Awards Luncheon, welcomes back Allison Rosati, evening news anchor NBC 5, as Master of Ceremonies.

Eligibility Criteria

- Nominees must be residents of Lake County
- Nominees must demonstrate a genuine passion for giving of themselves for the betterment of others.
- Nominees must demonstrate a natural willingness to make volunteerism a part of their everyday lifestyle.
- Nominees must receive no remuneration for their volunteer service.

Nomination Procedure

- All LCC Member Agencies are invited to nominate a valued volunteer (one nomination per member agency)
- All non-member agencies and individuals* must pay a $15 processing fee for submitting a nomination
Two individuals/sponsors may nominate a family member, friend or co-worker (only one processing fee applies).*

Lake County Cares and the i Care Award Selection Committee require that for each nominee, a nomination form and two letters of support are completed in full.

The nominees will be judged on the basis of the letters of support, which should describe individual merit, commitment and impact on the agency and the community. The nominee's volunteer history will be taken into consideration as described in the two letters of support.

Letters of Support Suggestions

- List the details of the nominee's volunteer activities.
- Who has benefited from the efforts of the nominee.
- Describe the need for the services or activities.
- Describe the specific results of the work performed by the nominee and how it impacted the community.
- Describe in detail any innovative or creative aspects of the nominee's activities/accomplishments.
